AIM

To do what I know is right at all times.

What is bullying?

Bullying is when you choose to intentionally hurt another child physically or verbally.

Several Times
On Purpose

Why do children choose to be a bully?

What can I do if I think I am a bully?

• Be Brave and Speak Out

- If you are upset or angry about something, talk about it instead of taking it out on someone else.
- Tell someone you trust - a friend, a teacher or trusted adult.
- You are not alone and it's important to let someone know if you think you may be bullying others so they can help you.

MRS. FINNEGAN'S MOTTO

“Keep your hands to yourself and your feet on the floor.”

If you have nothing nice to say – say nothing at all.”

What can we do
to help children
not to be a bully?

Be Friendly

- Someone who is being bullied or who is bullying others needs a friend and support too.
- Create opportunities to be friendly to everyone.

What can I do if
I think I'm being bullied?

What Can I Do?

- If possible, try to ignore it - bullies are usually trying to get you to react.
- If possible, try to talk to the bully about their actions.
- Tell someone you trust - a friend, a teacher or trusted adult.

What Can I Do?

Tell someone what's happening

- Bullying is never something anyone should suffer with in silence.
- You are not alone and it's important to let someone know if you are being bullied or you see others being bullied so they can be helped.

• Be Brave and Speak Out

Be Brave and Speak Out

- Be confident in who you are and encourage your friends to stand up against bullying and take action to stop it, whether it's happening to you or others.
- Talking about it doesn't mean you are telling tales. You're doing something good by helping someone out.

This is our school
Let it be a peaceful place
Let it be filled with happiness
Let it be filled with love
Love of one another
Love of mankind, love of life, and love of God
Let us remember that as many hands build a house
So every child can make our school a lovely place

*Follow me, follow me,
Leave your home and family
Leave your fishing nets and boats upon the shore
Leave the seed that you have sown
Leave the crops that you have grown
Leave the people you have known and follow me.*

The foxes have their holes
And the swallows have their nests
But the Son of Man has no place to lay down.
I do not offer comfort,
I do not offer wealth,
But in me will all happiness be found.

*Follow me, follow me,
Leave your home and family
Leave your fishing nets and boats upon the shore
Leave the seed that you have sown
Leave the crops that you have grown
Leave the people you have known and follow me.*

*Follow me, follow me,
Leave your home and family
Leave your fishing nets and boats upon the shore
Leave the seed that you have sown
Leave the crops that you have grown
Leave the people you have known and follow me.*

If you would follow me,
you must leave old ways behind.
You must take my cross
And follow on my path.
You may be far from loved ones,
You may be far from home,
But my Father will welcome you at last.

*Follow me, follow me,
Leave your home and family
Leave your fishing nets and boats upon the shore
Leave the seed that you have sown
Leave the crops that you have grown
Leave the people you have known and follow me.*

Although I go away
You will never be alone
For the Spirit will be there to comfort you
Though all of you may scatter
Each follow his own path
Still the Spirit of love will lead you home

*Follow me, follow me,
Leave your home and family
Leave your fishing nets and boats upon the shore
Leave the seed that you have sown
Leave the crops that you have grown
Leave the people you have known and follow me.*
